COLORADO COVID RELIEF FUND

- Coordination with other providers and systems is in place to ensure that there is a larger support network, for businesses this may include work with SBA, local chambers, banks.
- Funding will be able to help sustain the business or organization, they are not already closing and funds are inadequate to prevent closure.
- Overhead is capped at 8% for all organizations to ensure efficiency.
- Proven ability to deliver results in the community through proof of historical funders, customer base, etc.

FUNDING ALLOCATION PROCESS

- Governor’s Office, Laura Warren, Roxane White and Jerene Petersen (UW) will work with the foundation community to solicit support for managing the process.
- United Way will not be managing the application process or the volunteers involved in the process. They will solely manage the disbursements of the funding.
- A group will be established to oversee a statewide committee to establish grant making processes based on recommendations, areas and guidance provided by the Governor’s Office and Leadership Team.
- Needs will be collected via Governor’s Office, OEM, Philanthropists and COVID Relief Leadership group, and for understanding overall need.
- An Allocation Team composed of Governor’s Office, members of the COVID Leadership group, and United Way will track funding and allocation approximate dollars for areas (Prevention, Impact and Recovery).
- A submission process will be developed and managed by the Governor’s Office and screening of applications prior to submission of the allocation team.
- Applicants are vetted to ensure all paperwork is in place for both nonprofit and small business applicants. This is then forwarded to the review committee.
- The Allocation Team will work to identify best possible donors for needs and share applications with other donors.
- The Allocation Team will then recommend funding awards based upon secured funds. This process may occur several times throughout the course of the work to meet ongoing community needs.
